eruption occurred in the mountains opposite Flowing Wells station, on the Southern Pacific railroad, about sixty miles from Yuma, at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. It was preceded by a violent vibration of the earth, about half an hour after which a dense volume of smoke and huge black and broken boulders were observed to issue from the mountains. It continued in an active state all day, but became nearly passive at nightfall.

CLERK'S OFFICE OF SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA, RICHMOND, June 9. A. D. 1877. DURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS of an act of the General Assembly of Virginia approved April 30, 1874, entities an "Act prescribing the manner in which records for the Supreme Court of Appeals shall be printed, and providing for letting the same to contract," and which is as follows—

of Appeals shall be printed, and providing to letting the same to contract," and which is as follows—to wit:

I. Be it enacted by the General Assembly, That the clerks of the Supreme Court of Appeals at Richmond, Staunton, Winchester, and Wytheville shall, in the month of June, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-four, and annually thereafter in the same month, solicit proposals by advertising in some newspaper published in their respective localities for the printing for one year of such records of courts as may be required under existing laws to be printed for the use of the Supreme Court or Appeals in determining cases of appeal.

II. The said proposals shall state the amount per page of fifteen hundred cms small pica type, and shall include the paper, printing, binding, and a neat cover with the siyle of the case and the court from which the record comes neatly printed thereon.

III. The said clerks shall award the contracts for said printing to the lowest responsible hidders in their respective localities, and shall take from them bond, with ample security, in a penalty double the amount of the work to be executed, the same to be ascertained by the amount of the preceding year's work. The mode of certifying and paying accounts for said printing shall be as now, prescribed by law.

IV. All acts and parts of acts in condict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

V. This act shall be in force from its passage.
